

Crane Damage Assessment Pusan, Korea

On September 12, 2003, Typhoon Maemi struck the Dongbu Pusan Container Terminal causing the sequential collapse of six out of seven HHI container cranes at the terminal.

Liftech was retained to assist with the damage investigation and to provide expert opinion on technical issues related to the design and fabrication of the stowage hardware on the crane and in the wharf.

Reference:
Woo Un Kang Jeong & Han
Seoul, Korea